

International Conference on Safe and Sustainable Agriculture in an Era of Climate Change 2021

8–10 December

Azerbaijan State Agricultural university

Call for papers

There are projections that, by 2050, the growing world population may require twice as much food as was produced in 2012. The sustainable agriculture is the long-term solution for providing the growing population with enough food.

SSAACC 2021 calls scholars and scientists to present their projects and discuss the latest results in the field of Sustainable Agriculture. The general aim of the conference is to promote international collaboration in Sustainability Science and related disciplines. We invite you to submit an abstract in the range of the following streams within the SSAACC 2021 program:

- Overview of plant defences, plant epidemiology, and plant disease management
- Livestock Production & Animal Welfare
- Management of water resources
- Microplastics and food safety for aquatic ecosystems
- Sustainable soil management
- An innovative approach to risk management in food security
- Sustainable Agriculture and the Management of Natural Resources
- Artificial intelligence and digital transformation
- The role of society in sustainable agriculture
